Illustrations

Page No

Tables

2 1 Distribution of Mudugas 16
2 2 Age-Sex distribution of Mudugas 17
2 3 Educational status of the Mudugas 18

4 1 Widowed/separated persons attached to household of kin 76
4 2 Members attached to households of other than parents, spouse or children 78
4 3 Types of Families / households 94
4 4 Numerical composition of domestic groups 95
4 5 Attachment of old couples to household of km 102
4 6 Sexual division of labour 106
4 7 Distribution of abled members per household 110
4 8 Unit of economic co-operation and other activities 113
4 9 Composition of hunting groups indicating the nature of relationship 115
4 10 Distribution of adjacent farm lands of close km 121
4 11 Type of kin relationship existing between beethekarar at Thaze-Abbannoor 126
4 12 Number of beethakarar and the type of relation with respect to the head of the household at Thaze-Abbannoor 127

5 1 Muduga kinship terminology 141
5 2 Muduga kinship terms in reciprocal sets 159
5 3 Term of address for a male speaker 166
5 4 Term of address for a female speaker 167

6 1 Type of marriages 202
6 2 Bride-price paid and received by the male members of Thaze-Abbannoor 240
6 3 Distribution of marital exchanges between hamlet 253

Figures

2 1 Vertical section of Muduga hut 19
2 2 Ground plan of a Muduga hut 20
2 3 Finger linings on the wall of Muduga hut 20
2 4 Finger linings on the floor of Muduga hut 21
2 5 Diagramatic representation of hamlet and its surround territory 23

3.1 Genealogy showing relationship between Ramanan and Kadcti 31
3.2 Genealogy showing relationship between shanmukam and agnates of Chitoor hamlet 32
3 3 Genealogy showing the inheritance of (A) Moopan and (B) Mannukaran at Thaze-Abbannoor 41
3 4 Pattern of inheritance of name 43
3 5 Inheritance of name in Velli's family 43
3 6 Genealogical composition of Thaze-Abbannoor hamlet
3 7 Bride-price payment of Mathan 59
3 8 Co-residence of agnates and non-agnates and the shift of natal land during burial and dry-funeral 60
3 9 Temporary right on the mother's body and the children attained by anakkal ooru on payment of bride-price 62
3 10 Performance of nigaal nokkal 63
3 11 Cycle representing the regeneration of land and people 68

4 1 Genealogical composition of Chathan's family 75
4 2 Structure of relationship in nuclear family 79
4 3 Composition of Kakkilinkan's family 80
4 4 Genealogical composition of Rangan's family 81
4 5 Genealogical composition of Mallan's family 82
4 6 Genealogical composition of Linkan's family 83
4 7 Genealogical composition of Panali's family 84
4 8 Genealogical composition of Krishnan's family 85
4 9 Genealogical composition of Kali's family 86
4 10 Genealogical composition of Kullan's family 87
4 11 Genealogical composition of Gopi's family 87
4 12 Genealogical composition of Rangan's family 88
4 13 Genealogical composition of Chekidan's family 89
4 14 Genealogical composition of Chelli's family 90
4 15 Genealogical composition of Chathi's family 91
4 16 Genealogical composition of Man's family 92
4 17 Genealogical composition of Chekidan moopan's family 93
4 18 Genealogical composition of Chonke's family 93
4 19 Joint household of Chelli, Chellan and Sivalinkan 97
4 20 Different levels of corporate units of Kaden's family 114
4 20(a) Pattern of beethe exchange at Thaze-Abbannoor hamlet 123
4 21 Beethe shares from Karimi's household 125
4 22 Different spheres of economic unit of Ramanan's household 129
4 23 Different spheres of food sharing unit of Panali 130
4 24 Genealogical representation of different stages in the development cycle of Patti's domestic group 134
4 25 Transitional stages of Patti's family 135

5 1 Structure of Mudugakinship terminology 142
5 2 Muduga kinship terminological structure depicting the rule of bilateral cross-cousin marriage 143
5 3 Marriageability between members of first ascending generation 144
5 4 Marriageability between members of ego's generation 146
5 5 Marriageability between members of first descending generation 151
5 6 Marriageability between members of second ascending generation 153
5 7 Marriageability between members of second descending generation 154
5 8 Distinction of cross and parallel relatives 156
5 9 Genealogy showing Kaden's relationship with Chekidan 162
5 10 Genealogy showing Nanjappan's relationship with Kaden's wife 163
5 11 Structure of Muduga kinship categories 171
5 12 Vegetative propogation as an analogy for parent-child attachment 178
5 13 Analogy of konthan-konthi relationship 195
5 14 Generational equivalence of kinship behaviour 190
5 15 Genealogical representation of Bokken's marriage and the subsequent relations 194
5 16 Genealogical representation of Gundi's relationship with Nanji 196

6 1 Genealogy showing relationship between Eriyan and Neeli 205
6 2 Genealogy showing relationship between Panali and Kuppe 206
6 3 Genealogy showing relationship between Bokken and Vanji 207
6 4 Genealogy showing relationship between Kakki and Barme 207
6 5 Genealogy showing relationship between chelli and Ponnan 208
6 6 Alliance relationship showing relationship between the patnhneal segments of Thaze- Abbannoor and Boodar 210
6 7 Alliance relationship between the patnhneal segments of Thaze-Abbannoor and Veetiyoor 211
6 8 Alliance relationship between the patrilineal segments of Thaze-Abbannoor and Karuvara 213
6 9 Alliance relationship between patnhneal segments of Karuvara, Thaze-Abbannoor and Veettiyoor hamlet 215
6 10 Tying of broom analogous to marital exchange 217
6 11 Analogy of saval plant and family relations 221
6 12 Stages of bride-price payment 239
6 13 Paying and receiving of bride-price by a male ego 241
6 14 Bride-price payment dunng Lacchi's funeral 250

7 1 Exchanges associated with child-birth 265
7 2 Exchanges associated with tonsure ceremony 266
7 3 Exchanges associated with puberty ceremony 269
7 4 Exchanges associated with marriage 270
7 5 Offering of savu-seela dunng Ramaswami's death 273

7.6 Ummel atturathu and thanni atturathu during Kalamoopan's funeral 277
7.7 Ummel atturathu and thanni atturathu during Ramaswami's funeral 278
7.8 Exchange relation during funeral ceremony 283
7.9 The soul-cycle 284
7.10 Exchange relation between agnates and affines during dry-funeral 292

Maps

1.1 Kerala – showing Palakkad district and Attappady area
1.2 Village map of Attappady showing the distribution of Muduga hamlets

Photographs

A Muduga Nuclear Family
A Muduga Couple
A Muduga Woman
Pariya-Panam payment during marriage
Woman sowing seeds – shifting cultivation
Affines sharing labour
Child rearing – fondling the child